31 March 1958

Dear Dick:

I am taking advantage of [] trip to send you this letter.

25X1

As I understand your present schedule, you can be [] at either of two times, namely, 19-24 April or 23-27 April. As far as [] we are concerned, either date is fine. I cannot, however, answer specifically unless I can obtain some views regarding the possibility of having [] plus yourself, get a ride on the C-118. As I wrote you on 19 March, we are most anxious to be able to make the offer but obviously before we can do so we have to get [] concurrence. I wrote him about it on 19 March [] so that he is aware of the problem. I would be very grateful if you could get us an answer, particularly a favorable one. Obviously the time would be unimportant except in relation to the above dates which, unfortunately, are getting pretty close.

Under any circumstances, we are looking forward to seeing you and Madame B as well as Jim Cunningham. Please let me know if there is anything in particular which needs to be done in advance of your arrival as we would be delighted to take care of it. At the moment, I, myself, can think of nothing.

Best regards,

[]
